

The playing field near the war memorial is increasingly being used as a dog walking field. The usage notices ask for dogs on leads. Can you either remove this requirement or preferably add some very large signs to inform the dog walkers of their responsibilities . I think you were going to have more signs for the springs where there is the same problem so this might help make the provision of signs cost effective.