A new perspective

Trustee training can be delivered as part of trustees' continued personal development or following a training requirement instruction from The Charity Commission (e.g. as a result of investigation or as a condition of giving consent to a course of action).

The training helps strengthen relationships between the Board of Trustees and those employed by the charity in managerial roles – so CEOs, senior managers and leaders within charities can also find the training useful.

For a fixed one-off cost, our charity trustee training sessions will be delivered by our charity law specialists Gerry Morrison and Harriet Wheeldon from either our offices or yours.

For more information, please email: gerry.morrison@wclaw.co.uk or harriet.wheeldon@wclaw.co.uk or visit wilkinchapmanrollits.co.uk

Charity trustees can choose any of the following topics:

- Trustees' legal duties and how these can be discharged effectively
- The proper management of conflicts of interest and efficient and lawful decision-making
- Charity incorporation (for unincorporated charities)
- Governance and constitutional issues
- How to avoid common mistakes and what to do when something goes wrong
- Charity Commission reporting and when The Charity Commission's consent is required
- How to hold an effective trustees' meeting (including the role of the Chair)
